DEDICATION

This annual of 1959 is respectfully dedicated to our TEACHERS AND PARENTS, who have been with us throughout our twelve years of school.

These passages symbolize our respect for their guidance.

"A teacher affects eternity. We can never tell where his influence stops."
Henry Adams

"In the lives of Mothers and Fathers, the world over, there is direction--steady and sure--surpassing the beacon lights of all the compass stars."
Armistead Grady

MR. FLOYD NEFF, SPONSOR

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Graduating Class of Ladoga High School, County of Montgomery, State of Indiana, being of sound body and memory, and of improved (?) and weary mind, as a result of four strenuous years of arduous search for the golden nuggets of wisdom, now in spirit of magnanimity do hereby bestow upon those underclassmen who are left to mourn our loss, our characteristics and positions, making, publishing, and declaring this to be our last will and testament, revoking any of those heretofore made by us.

I, Penny Ball, will my position as head majorette to Bonnie Wethington--make 'em strut, Bon! To Janice Fuller I will my ability to become engaged during my senior year--use it to your best advantage, Jan.

I, Bill Bradley, will my dead-weight behind the broom to Eddie Maffei, my steady-dating reputation to Dorman Morrison, (I'll keep Connie, thank you), my traffic tickets to Dave Prosser, my home-made mash recipes to Ronnie Fine and my love for wine, women and song to the male population of LHS--"Zowie! An' the birdies sing!"

I, Frank Cating, will my romantic role in the senior play to Mike Sabens, my blonde flat-top to Lloyd Pence, my walk to Carl Kenworthy, and my laugh to Ned Seale.

I, Marilynn Daly, will my ability to scrape out of car jams to Janet McClellan, my love for milk to Marianne Hayes and Bill Hauser, and my solo clarinet chair to Connie Elliot. I lend my enjoyment and laughter and my love for people, even those who don't like me, to everyone, and most (but not all, please!) of the C'ville boys to the sophomore girls.

I, Marlene Deckard, will my vast collection of fingernail polish to Ronnie Fine, that he may match every shirt, my little black chevy to Jean Todd (as she knows chevies are tops), and my short hair-cut to Norma Bullock.

I, Gaildene Duncan, will my dubious, debatable typing ability to Patty Miller, my ability to rattle Mr. Priebe in Government class to Jean Todd or Connie Elliott (don't fight over it, though, girls), and my walk to Ned Seale. Don Long may have my position as editor-in-chief, plus a bonus---ulcers.

I, Joe Faulkinbury, will the fun I had on the 4-H trip to Chicago and my driving ability to Jerry McClaine. Easy going, Jer, the life you save might be mine. Dave Prosser can have the next wreck--maybe he can get his name in the Journal (I didn't).

I, Phillip Jeffries, will my position as senior class president to Harry Clanton, since, having broad shoulders, he seems to meet the physical requisition. I also will my athletic abilities to all upcoming stars of LHS who will follow the coach and his rules, and to anyone who might need an English credit, my vocabulary.

I, Virginia Lowe, will my ability to get along with Mr. Long and receive A's in his classes to Eddie Maffei, hoping that he will use it for the betterment of his record. Upon Mike Sabens I cheerfully unload my position as lay-out editor.

I, George Markey, will my acrobatic antics to Lloyd Pence, Ronnie Fine, and my Walnut Twp. acquaintances to Don Graham. To Juanita Bishop, I lend my pleasant disposition, and upon Jack Galbert I dump my banking responsibilities. (Have fun!)

I, Sue Merchant, will my letters from Lafayette to Juanita Bishop, my clarinet to Vonnie Leach, and my ability to get by with all but murder in Mr. Faulkinbury's study hall to Janice Fuller.

I, Harold Miller, Jr., will my driving ethics to Dick Oliver, my position on the cheering squad to Don Graham, my obesity to Tom Gerald, and my curly locks to Gary Bradley and Harry Clanton. Which twin has the Toni?

I, Alma Newby, will my laugh to Janet McClellan and Pat Miller, my dog, Boom-Boom, to Shirley Carmichael, and my job taking inventory for the senior concession to Carl Kenworthy.

I, Gwen Nicholson, will the keys to my jalopy to Bonnie Wethington. Dorman Morrison may have my job behind the counter--warning: Patience and strong arches.

I, Kay Scott, will my ability to control my temper to Norma Bullock and my ability to go steady to Shirley Carmichael.

I, Bill Thomas, will my love for figures--algebraic, geometrical, Mansfield, etc.--to Dean Rogers.

I, Linda Vice, will my "special" classmate friendship to Marianne Hayes. To Connie Elliott I will the honor of having been chosen homecoming candidate four years.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Penny Ball is a waitress,
Married to Danny to be sure;
And don't you know
She still has that figure.

Bill Bradley married Connie
Then to college he went,
Now he's back at Ladoga
Teaching government.

Marilyn Daly is a famous author,
Well known by one and all
For a book entitled,
"Don't walk down stairs - Just Fall."

Marlene wanted to go to college
But they wouldn't let her in;
I think she really knew
Wabash college was for men.

Gaildene married Roscoe
And Max has married Sue,
With the money saved on postage
They're all going to Purdue.

Damon gave up his sheep
And his racing had to stop;
He stayed in Ladoga
And opened a barber shop.

Phil Jeffries has a job
That is his pride and joy;
You can see him on T. V.
A "Thinking man for Viceroy."

George Markey is town marshall,
In Ladoga he's the boss;
His experience was gained
From encounters with Runt Cross.

THE LAST MARCH!

Kay Scott graduated,
Then she moved away;
She doesn't miss Bill
Like she does that Chevrolet.

Bill "Flat top" Thomas
Has just written a song,
Of course it's all about
How he misses Mr. Long.

Linda Vice left Ladoga
But is returning soon,
She said she longs to see
Those faces made by June.

Since Frank Cating graduated
He hasn't been on the run,
He was even too slow
To catch Sandra Hobson.

Virginia Lowe at Cape Canaveral
Is making quite a hit,
Not learning to launch a rocket,
But telling others how to do it.

Jr. Miller is in college
And as happy as can be;
He gave up his sheep
To major in Chemistry.

Still on the streets in Ladoga
A cruising car you'll see,
Containing just two girls,
Gwen Nicholson and Alma Newby.
